② Exhibits A/B Attach to This motion, which clearly shows that there's Assets to be administered to accord relief to the debtor. From the Evidence from Fidelity and the Department of Revenue. So I'm requesting under Rule 105 power of the court. And Rule 5010, that this court reopens this case for Section 350(B) enclosing Debtor is asking because I feel I have a right of recoupement and I'm doing everything that I can to have these Assets administered and distribute to pay creditors and to receive the relief that's due to the debtor. Debtor feels that he's shown good faith and good cause, mainly because of the effort's put forth by the debtor. So I'm requesting to have another Trustee appointed and under Rule 704(A) || Rule 105 Power of the court, I'm asking to at least CUSIP #315805333 be administered to pay creditors because of the Assets itself, represents my Birthright. Also I don't feel that the Trustee did a thorough investigation of these Assets. Exhibits A/B shows that. So I'm asking that the case be reopened and referred to Rule 350(B). A case may be reopened in the court in which such case was closed to administer Assets, to accord relief to the debtor, or for other cause. MR Frank These two Exhibits came from those officials Fidelity - Dept of Revenue, and because of that I feel these Assets should be discharge to me.

Dear ERIC LONG:

Re: ERIC LONG
Case Number: 17-10828

The Department of Revenue recently learned that the above referenced debtor has filed for protection under Chapter 07 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, Title USCS § 1101 et. seq. or §1301 et. seq.

In reviewing the tax accounts associated with the case, the Department has determined that tax returns have not been filed for the following tax accounts and tax periods.

Type of Tax	Tax I.D. Number	Unfiled Periods
Annual	xxx-xx-7086	2015* 2014* 2013* 2012*

*Annual Tax -- Please attach all W2s and/or schedules with your signed PA40.

Please file these tax returns by mailing them to the above address within the next ten days. This will enable the Department to file a claim which at least represents the taxpayers self-assessed tax liabilities. If the debtor is not required to file tax returns for certain periods, provide us with a written explanation.

Sincerely,

Chapter 1. The Fiscal Code

Article II. Department of Revenue

§ 212. Examination of books, etc., by expert accountants

For the purpose of investigating the books, accounts, documents, or papers of any person, association or corporation, liable by law to make report to the Department of Revenue, or any county officer acting as agent for the Commonwealth, for the purpose of taxation, the department may employ, from time to time, one or more expert accountants, who shall have power to inspect the same and report thereon, but any such investigation shall be limited to such of the books as bear upon the subject matter of the tax under investigation.

§ 213. Duty to furnish record of tax liens

It shall be the duty of the Department of Revenue to furnish to any person applying therefor, upon the payment of a fee of two dollars ($ 2.00) for the use of the Commonwealth, a certificate showing the character and amount of all liens that may be of record in the department against any corporation, association or person under the provisions of any law of this Commonwealth.
